

PARENT EVALUATION

For Career Guidance and Self-Examination

Dear Parent:

Your teen has just completed a course in career guidance and self-examination. The purpose of this course has been to help teens discern their work abilities and goals, as well as, discover how their own unique personality traits can influence their career decisions. Please take the time to fill out the following evaluation form to help us continue to develop an effective program.

Please circle one:

1. The program director and parents' guidebook clearly communicated my role in supporting my teen through the program.
